UM GEOLOGY DEPARTMENT SPONSORS TWO LECTURES

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana geology department is sponsoring two free lectures by Norman D. Newell, Ph.D., curator emeritus at the American Museum of Natural History and professor emeritus at Columbia University.

The first lecture, "The Mystery of Paraconformities: What Do They Really Mean?" will be held at noon, Sept. 27, in Science Complex Room 304. The second lecture, "Creationism and Science Education," will be held at 7:30 p.m., Oct. 1, in the Underground Lecture Hall.

Newell's work in geology and paleontology has focused on evolution and the history of life. He is a member of the National Academy of Sciences, the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, and the American Philosophical Society.

For more information about his lectures, call the UM geology department at 243-2341.
